

InternetTracking Resource

Data Dictionary Wiki Version: 1.7

The InternetTracking Resource provides a standard data set for the recording and transfer of event-related information of real estate products. This allows the participant to monitor and review their real estate data on a grander scale, quickly and efficiently (i.e., listing views from multiple products). The pages within the InternetTracking Resource include the following:

Page Revision Date: Jul 09 2022

Form: Resource